

Become a student of Spanish in your everyday life: Carry a notebook with you

Ideally, it would be small enough to have in your pocket, backpack, or purse so you can pull it out quickly.

Imagine you're waiting in line at a taco shop, and you hear someone in front of you say "Me das tres tacos por favor." Pull out your notebook and write it down! They speak Spanish and they just ordered tacos this way. Therefore, this is a way to order tacos.

Review your notebook before bed, and let the experiences sink in.

The world is your classroom if you're listening!